MONTPELIER

Firemen Called to Fight Blaze in Cow Stable and Henhouse.

The fire department was called out on a general alarm about 7:20 o'clock Sunday evening because the henhouse owned by John Sarkis on Berlin hill street was burning. The building was used by C. Canales, who owns a cow and some 13 hens. These were kept in the place. Before supper the man built a fire in the stove in the henhouse and the building caught fire. It is very probable that in some manner the building caught fire from the stove. Mr. Canales stated last evening that he had used the stove for months without any trouble from it. It was a small stove, in which wood was burned. The henhouse was burning for some time before the fire department was called out. The fire department was called out at 7:20 o'clock. The fire was extinguished at 8:30 o'clock. The damage was not great. The cow was moved to Mrs. M. J. Flannery's barn, while the hens were allowed to go at large. According to the report of the state bank commissioner for the fiscal year which closed June 30, 1919, the report of the bank commissioner regarding savings from paying more than four per cent interest unless their surplus, exclusive of accrued interest, amounts to ten per cent of their deposits will affect only about a dozen banks, although it was known that others planned to begin paying 4 1/2 per cent on Jan. 1, 1920.

The change of office between the bank commissioner and insurance commissioner in the state building occurred Saturday and Sunday, and to-day the officials were getting their offices organized.

CARS STOPPED.

Entire Interborough Line in New York City Was Tied Up.

New York, Dec. 29.—An unusual transportation tie-up occurred here to-day when the entire Interborough Rapid Transit system, including the subway and elevated divisions and several surface lines in Manhattan, suddenly stopped at 9:15 a. m. The trouble was caused by the power house in West 39th street going out of commission from some unknown reason, according to Interborough officials.

Thousands of commuters on their way to work were stalled in trains between stations. The congestion of passengers in most stations became so great that the sale of tickets was stopped.

The subway and elevated trains resumed operations throughout Manhattan and the Bronx at 9:40 a. m.

Because of the small attendance of members due to the transportation tie-up the stock exchange opened at 10 o'clock and closed immediately to reopen at 10:30 o'clock. The curb market took similar action.

Resumption of normal service was interfered with by scores of persons walking along the subway tracks to their destinations, necessitating the running of trains at low speed.

NEW SWANTON CORPORATION.

The Swanton Liquidation corporation has filed articles of association in the office of the secretary of state for the purpose of handling and making all kinds of machinery. Frank Plumley Mentioned for Governor.

A well-defined opposition to Mason S. Stone is developing on the east side of the state among some of the leading citizens. It is felt that Mr. Stone is not quite big enough for governor, particularly at this time when Vermont needs a strong man at the head of the state government. There is no criticism of Mr. Stone's character or of his political fidelity. It is felt that he is not of an aggressive nature, that he lacks backbone and punch. He is spoken of as a nice man but weak in force, a kindly fellow but lacking in aggressiveness.

Mr. Babbitt of Bellows Falls is said to meet the requirements better, and then Mr. Dunham of Brattleboro is spoken of as having the required ability. The opposition to Mr. Stone do not seem to centralize on either Dunham or Babbitt, and it is expected that Hon. Frank Plumley of Northfield will be brought forward before long. Mr. Plumley is a well-known Vermont politician of the old school, but he would create no enthusiasm among the young and progressive element of the state. Yet his candidacy is being quietly talked among the knowing ones, with the idea of feeling out popular sentiment.

The old guard are trying to work out a combination to keep the same old gang in control of the state affairs at Montpelier. They know that Mason S. Stone will meet with strong opposition from many quarters, and they fear an independent movement would defeat him at the election. Dunham or Babbitt would not unite the Republican forces, and it is doubtful if Mr. Plumley would prove a real strong candidate.

Everything has thus far looked very rosy for Mason S. Stone and little opposition has been looked for against his candidacy. But now that the primaries will be here in a little over six months the big politicians are beginning to get busy.—Burlington Clipper.

Big Chance for Ex-Service Men.

A special ruling allows all former service men, no matter when discharged, to reinstate their insurance on or before Dec. 31, 1919, on statement in their applications that they are in as good health as at the date of discharge or at the date of the expiration of the grace period for the payment of premiums, whichever is the later date, and payment of two months' premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated. After Dec. 31, the privilege of reinstatement will be limited to the period of 18 months following the month of discharge, or 12 months following the month of lapse, if reinstatement is made after 18 months following month of discharge.

As only two months' premiums are now required for reinstatement, a former service man who paid more than two months' back premiums in reinstating prior to July 25, 1919, can, on application, obtain credit for any premiums so paid in excess of two and have the overplus applied toward future premium payments.

The bureau of war risk insurance wants the service men to know what their rights are as to government insurance and the methods by which this insurance may be retained or reinstated. It is to the interest of every service man whose insurance may have lapsed or been cancelled to apply at once for reinstatement. To wait may mean disaster.

Check or money order should be made payable to the treasurer of the United States and, with the application, sent to the premium receipt section, bureau of war risk insurance, Washington, D. C.

A special meeting of Court Robert Emmett, No. 364, C. O. F., will be held in Miles' hall Tuesday night, Dec. 30. Initiation of candidates. Per order secretary.
